

Maintenance worker / handyman - Follerupgaard

In connection with our various agricultural properties, we are looking for a flexible and reliable maintenance employee for many different maintenance and service tasks.

The job position includes:

- "Green" maintenance tasks such as lawn cutting and various garden/park tasks, etc., so our properties look nice and presentable.
- Hedge cutting
- Cleaning windows, gates and doors with our special equipment
- Outside service tasks on our various agricultural properties.
- Smaller freight tasks across our company activities.
- Maintenance tasks of many different types on various buildings herby doors, windows, roofs etc. • Various service tasks across our company activities.

We offer:

An exciting and versatile permanent job in an exciting family business and where the position will include many different tasks. You will receive a work car and all the necessary tools etc.

Each week will be different, and you will be responsible for planning your working week yourself based on the different types of tasks and their priority.

Qualifications:

Salary level determined by qualifications

We expect you are a handyman with these skills, without necessarily having an education on it, but that you can manage various maintenance tasks independently.
